Own a piece of history! First built in 1888, this charming house boasts the original hardwood floors and fireplace, and many of the original doors and double-hung weighted windows. With gorgeous views of the entire valley, the outdoor space holds variety with a beautiful garden area for flowers, herbs, and veggies, three mature fruit trees, an expansive yard, and the wrap-around deck is great for entertaining. On cold nights you can cozy up to the wood-stove in the great room, or the painted brick fireplace in the master bedroom. Call for your showing today!
