Exceptional and inspiring mountain contemporary home in a one of a kind, in town setting. A true hidden gem, the home is almost absent from sight from the street, with direct National Forest access and a seasonal stream, offering tranquil living spaces indoors and out and views of the Steamboat valley. A thoughtful, modern renovation where every inch of the home has been refinished using local artisans and craftsmen, creating a true masterpiece with no detail overlooked. The exterior has a timeless appeal with Douglas fir hand stained vertical siding accented by horizontal metal siding. The main level of the home boasts wide plank European white oak flooring, high vaulted ceilings, a Tom Dixon Melt multi light pendant, and a 16 sliding Zola glass door that brings the outdoors in. The professionally designed custom kitchen features all SubZero and Wolf appliances, walnut veneer and designer high gloss white acrylic cabinetry, quartz countertops and a spacious butler s pantry. The master suite offers a grand walk in closet and an elegant master bath with single slab...
